

2003 Legislative Survey Results

The following results from the survey were compiled from the response of more than 700 citizens in Senate District 19.

David Ford

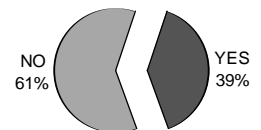

1) In Indiana, land use is a local decision. However, in the interest of farmland preservation, should state legislation allow local units of government more options for the zoning and use of prime farmland?

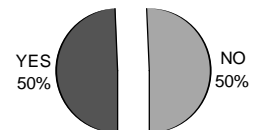

2) As a response to jail overcrowding, do you support alternative sentencing rather than a mandatory minimum jail time for non-violent convictions?

3) Do you support daylight-saving time throughout Indiana?

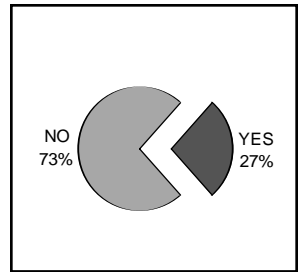

4) Should the rural interstate speed limit be raised from 65 miles per hour to 70 mph?

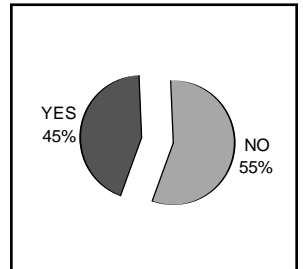

5) Should Indiana increase its budget for attracting new jobs, even if it means no funding increases in health care, the environment and other state programs?

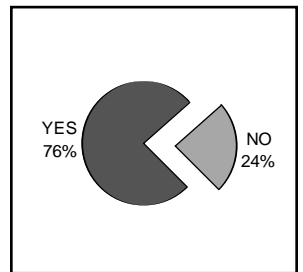

6) Would you favor a state tax increase in any form provided that all of the revenue generated by the increase is used to beef-up job-creating economic development programs?

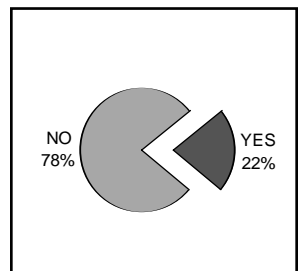

7) Should Indiana offer a student loan-forgiveness program to college students who agree to live and work in the state for a certain number of years after graduation?

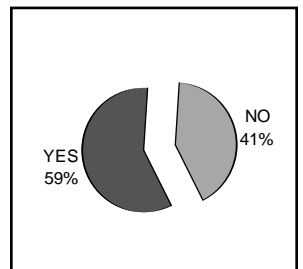

8) Should parents have the option to send their children to public schools other than the one to which the children are assigned if the parents provide their children's transportation?

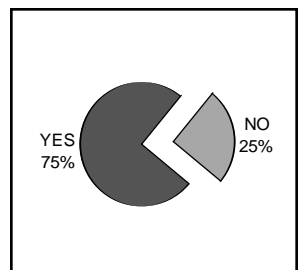

9) Do you favor any further expansion of gambling in Indiana?

10) The Build Indiana Fund, made up of a portion of gambling profits, provides supplemental funding for local improvement projects. Recently, criminal charges were brought in two counties for abuse of the fund. Should the Build Indiana Fund be continued?

11) Do you favor reducing state government regulations on the private sector to encourage investment and economic expansion?

12) Should the state allow local communities to install cameras near highway and street intersections to photograph vehicles running red lights?
